

Media consolidation undermines an essential component of a healthy democracy - access to independent opinions on all aspects of the American experience. Please do not compromise the American public's access to media that serves the need of the public not private, media conglomerates.